The Night Of is based on Leonard's short story of the same title and tracks the bizarre and escalating case of a young man in New York who goes on the run after being accused of murdering his girlfriend. The film was directed by John Singleton and will debut on HBO this September. HBO We've seen some footage from the pilot, and now we have some new footage from the extended end credits of the episode, which follows the guilt of the young man (Ralph Ineson) as he decides to go to The Plaza Hotel in Manhattan to kill himself. He's easily caught by the cops, but the police detective (Harris) is determined to get to the bottom of the case by investigating a mystery and locating the man who confessed. This video has no sound and is currently under reconstruction and requires all types of external plugins to be playable. HBO HBO HBO HBO HBO HBO HBO HBO HBO HBO HBO HBO This episode is the start of a 15-hour miniseries that will be released on premium cable channel Sunday nights in September. The Mexican government allowed a drug cartel to bribe the previous president of the country. And the DEA's previous chief oversaw the overthrow of a democratically elected Honduran president. And those are just the DEA's more recent victims of corruption. Less publicised, but no less deadly, is the fact that the DEA has been involved in corruption in countries all over the world. Drug cartels from New York to
